

Step 3 - I make a decision to turn my will and my life over to the care of God, as I understand Him

- What are your greatest fears about giving up control over your life to God, as you understand Him?
- What things, people or circumstances have you tried to control in the past and how has that turned out? Do you think God will be able to handle your life better than you have?
- How do you feel in general about turning your life over to God?
- In what ways will you keep up the process of turning your life over to God? Possibilities include going to religious services, 12 Step meetings, meeting with others in recovery, writing a journal, service to others, meditation, reading, physical exercise, contacting your sponsor or engaging in therapy.
- How would you answer the question "Who am I"?
- How would you answer the question "Who is God"? In other words, describe God, as you understand Him.
- Describe who or what you trust and to what degree.
- In what do you find meaning now or think you can find meaning in the future?
- How do you think you should live your life after giving your life over to the care of God, as you understand Him? What changes do you expect to make and how will this look in specific detail?
- How do you plan to celebrate or honor this step of turning your life over to the care of God?
- Describe any celebration or honoring activity that you have actually made in turning your life over to the care of God.
